Kilimanjaro Lemosho Route — 8-Day Wilderness Expedition

The connoisseur's choice — Kilimanjaro's most remote and pristine route offering unmatched scenery, wildlife encounters, and the highest summit success rate.

EDITORIAL OVERVIEW

Experience Overview

If there is a route built for those who seek the extraordinary, it is the Lemosho. Beginning on the remote western slopes of Kilimanjaro at Londorossi Gate, this eight-day expedition traverses the mountain's wildest terrain — and rewards you with the highest summit success rate of any route (over 90%). The first two days pass through untouched montane rainforest, where elephant tracks cross the trail and blue monkeys swing through the canopy. Emerging onto the vast Shira Plateau — a collapsed caldera at 3,600m — you'll enjoy 360-degree views stretching from Mount Meru to the Rift Valley. The route then joins the Southern Circuit, traversing the Barranco Wall and ascending through the Karanga Valley before the final push from Barafu Camp. An additional acclimatisation day built into the itinerary means your body adapts gradually, dramatically reducing altitude sickness and maximising your summit chances. This is our most recommended route for first-time and returning climbers alike — the perfect combination of wilderness immersion, gradual acclimatisation, and summit confidence.

Itinerary

Your day-by-day journey through Tanzania

DAY 1

Londorossi Gate to Mti Mkubwa (2,895 m)

Drive to Londorossi Gate on the western side of Kilimanjaro. Trek through pristine montane rainforest rich with blue monkeys and birdsong to the Big Tree Camp.

DAY 2

Mti Mkubwa to Shira 1 Camp (3,505 m)

Emerge from the forest into the heather zone. Cross streams and climb onto the vast Shira Plateau with panoramic views of Kibo peak ahead.

DAY 3

Shira 1 to Shira 2 Camp (3,840 m)

Traverse the Shira Plateau — one of the most scenic walks on Kilimanjaro. Giant groundsel and lobelia dot the landscape. Camp with views of the summit.

DAY 4

Shira 2 to Barranco Camp (3,960 m)

Acclimatisation day climbing toward Lava Tower (4,630 m), then descending to Barranco Camp in the shadow of the Great Barranco Wall.

DAY 5

Barranco Wall to Karanga Camp (3,995 m)

Scale the thrilling Barranco Wall with hands-on scrambling. Continue across alpine desert to Karanga Valley camp.

DAY 6

Karanga Camp to Barafu Camp (4,673 m)

Ascend the steep ridge to the summit base camp. Rest, hydrate, and prepare for the midnight summit push. Sunset views across the cloud sea.

DAY 7

Summit Night — Uhuru Peak (5,895 m)

Begin at midnight through the Arctic zone. Reach Stella Point at dawn, then push to Uhuru Peak (5,895 m). Descend to Millennium Camp.

Descent to Mweka Gate

Final descent through lush rainforest to Mweka Gate. Collect your summit certificate and celebrate with your crew before returning to Arusha.
