Ngorongoro & Tarangire — 5-Day Family Safari Adventure

A family-friendly expedition combining the Ngorongoro Crater's Big Five spectacle with Tarangire's legendary elephants — perfectly paced for all ages.

EDITORIAL OVERVIEW

Experience Overview

Designed for families seeking authentic wilderness without the marathon drives, this five-day safari is the ideal introduction to Tanzania's wildlife for travellers of all ages. Departing Arusha, you'll reach Tarangire National Park within two hours — just enough time for the children to absorb the stunning baobab-studded landscape through the open roof of your private Land Cruiser. Tarangire's 300-strong elephant herds provide extraordinary viewing: calves splashing in watering holes, matriarchs guiding their families through ancient corridors of giants. Your family-friendly lodge features interconnecting rooms, a pool, and guided nature walks designed for young explorers. The heart of the safari is the Ngorongoro Crater — a 260-square-kilometre arena where lions, rhinos, elephants, buffalos, and leopards roam in a self-contained paradise. Junior rangers receive their own binoculars and wildlife journals. The final evening features a stargazing session on the crater rim with a local astronomer, mapping constellations visible only from the African equator.
